

2010 Financial Incentives

ENERGY STAR Incentives		Incentive*
CERTIFICATION FEES	Your utility sponsor directly pays the ENERGY STAR contractor for all technical services and project support needed to guide your project through the program.		Up to $800 per home
ENERGY STAR PRODUCTS	ENERGY STAR Lighting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Free CFL's Installed $25 rebate for each approved Energy Star Fixture 	ENERGY STAR Appliance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> $25 for each qualified dishwasher, refrigerator, thermostat and clothes washer 	Efficient Gas HVAC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assistance with GasNetworks program to earn rebates for gas HVAC equipment
BUILDING PERFORMANCE	HERS Index 80 Required to earn Energy Star Certification and rebates offered under the NH Energy Star Homes program	Single Family/Townhouse $500 $50 for each point below HERS score of 80	Multifamily >5 units $250 $25 for each point below HERS score of 80

Eligibility Requirements

- Builder must submit an approved ENERGY STAR Application to their local utility
- Builder agrees to update program application with any changes to the project or construction schedule
- Builder agrees to coordinate inspections with assigned ENERGY STAR Contractor
- Homes must meet ENERGY STAR program standards to qualify for label and financial incentives
- Homes must be separately metered, new residential construction or a complete building rehabilitation
- Homes can be single-family, multi-family or townhouse style construction three stories or less in height
- Windows must be ENERGY STAR rated or better
- At least (one) ENERGY STAR bath fan operated by programmable timer is required
- Electrical service must be provided by an electric utility sponsor
- Construction on the home must be “completed” by December 31, 2009 to receive financial incentives unless the sponsoring utility has approved a rebate extension

Additional Incentives Available

Gas Efficiency

Gas heated homes may take advantage of further rebates offered by your local gas utility. The following rebates are available through GasNetworks and are good through April 30, 2010. Homebuilders interested in these incentives must submit an application directly to GasNetworks.

Equipment	Incentive
High Efficiency Furnace AFUE 92% or greater	$100
High Efficiency Furnace with ECM 92% or greater	$400
High Efficiency Steam Boilers 82% or greater	$200
High Efficiency Hot Water Boilers 85% or greater	$500
High Efficiency Hot Water Boilers 90% or greater	$1000
High Efficiency Indirect Water Heater/ On-Demand Tankless Water Heaters 82% or greater	$300
ENERGY STAR® Thermostats	$25 (≤2)

Visit www.gasnetworks.com for rules, applications and more information.